The following special arrangements have been made accordingly:—

(a.) Officers commanding units abroad will be furnished with the necessary forms, instructions, &c., to enable soldiers under their command to open accounts in the Post Office Savings Bank and also to increase their deposits, or to withdraw them either for the use of their families or friends at home, or for their own use at the stations abroad where they are serving.

(b.) A soldier desiring to make a deposit through the public accounts, will hand the amount to the officer from whom he receives his pay. The officer will give a receipt for the money, and will credit the amount in the abstract of his company, &c., pay list under the head of "Postmaster-General, Savings Bank Deposits." The credit will be supported by a voucher giving the rank and name of the soldier, the number of the Post Office Savings Bank deposit book, and the name of the post office or station at which the book was issued. Sums so credited will be included by the paymaster in a special remittance roll (Army Form O 1744) to be sent in duplicate to the War Office, one copy being for transmission to the Controller, Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London.

(c.) The soldier's deposit book will not be forwarded with the remittances when made through the public accounts, but should be forwarded annually by the soldier-depositor to the Controller as directed in the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations, on the anniversary of the day on which the account was opened, in order that the interest due, and the deposits remitted by the soldier-depositor, may be duly entered therein by the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London.

(d.) The amount of a soldier's Post Office Savings Bank remittances, together with any sums which may have been deposited through other channels, will not exceed the limit fixed by the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations (i.e., 50*l.* in any one year), but they will be entirely irrespective of any amount which he may otherwise remit to his family or friends under para. 218 of the Financial Instructions, 1895, as amended by Army Order 35 of 1896.

(e.) Withdrawals by soldier-depositors from the Post Office Savings Bank can be made at any time in accordance with the Post Office Savings Bank Regulations for depositors residing abroad. If the money is to be withdrawn at home, the soldier will execute an order in favour of the person to whom he wishes the money to be paid. If he requires the money for his own use abroad, he will execute an order in favour of the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, and the money will be remitted to him by money order or bankers draft, less the cost of the remittance.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

DE ROS, Lieut.-General,
Chairman of Committee.
